A Brief Guide to the Registration of the Work

(Frequently Asked Questions)

What Kinds of Works Can Be Submitted?

Any student work on design and visual culture created after January 1, 2014 and which has not been enrolled in any of the foregoing years of the National Award for Student Design can be submitted to the National Award for Student Design 2014. The students of Universities, High and Practical schools who finished their studies at summer semester 2014 at the latest may take part in the competition. Both Czech and foreign student works are acceptable.

What Do You Need?

You must prepare these materials before registration your work (no info that could identify the author must be introduced; there are two exceptions: names of image attachments and the name of the file with poster!):

Electronic form of the presentation panel (poster); JPG, 150-300 ppi, format B1 (i.e. 100 x 70 cm, portrait mode), max. size of the file 30 MB, format of the file name (characters allowed: only A - Z, a - z, 0 - 9, and _, no diacritic and spaces!): surname_name_nameofthework_poster.jpg

Maximum 8 image attachments; JPG, length of the longer side min. 1500 and max. 3000 px; format of the file name (characters allowed: only A - Z, a - z, 0 - 9, and _, no diacritic and spaces!): surname_name_nameofthework_01.jpg surname_name_nameofthework_02.jpg

Name of the work and subtitle (Czech + English) and a brief annotation (300 – 1500 characters) in Czech and English.

If the work is physical, provide info about dimensions, weight (brutto + netto) and about used materials.

If you are submitting your work through your school, check up whether (and in what way) the school will participate on paying the registration fee.

How to Submit Your Work?

Connect to the web pages on www.studentskydesign.cz/en before June 23, 2016 and fill-in all necessary items.

If you need next info, please contact us via e-mail (info@designcabinet.cz) or by phone + 420 733 155 985 (Miss Lucie Kaslová).

What to Do Next?

You will be informed by e-mail about next steps (paging registration fee, assigning registration number, alternatively about advancing to the national round and delivering your works and printed posters).
